Comedy Set For Sequoia

Presented as a benefit for the Recreation Center Building Fund, amateur musicians not play a comedy-drama, "Three Men on a Horse," will be given at Sequoia High School Auditorium tonight and tomorrow at 8:15 p. m. by the Community Players.

Admission is 40 cents. Reserved seat tickets may be obtained at Territo's Market, 2644 Broadway, or at the door each evening. All proceeds above actual expenses go into the building fund for the new sports field.

Hilariously funny, the play is expected to prove to be worth far more in entertainment value than the admission charge, according to members of the Recreation Fund Committee, who are aiding the Community Players in presenting the show. Claude E. Van Patten is directing.

While it was originally planned to have the Sequoia High School and Westbay Symphony Orchestras play preceding the show and between acts, "request" of Musicians Union, Local 6, that the amateur musicians not play resulted in a last-minute cancellation of such plans. Elmer W. Vincent, business agent of the union, at first asked that union musicians be employed, but when it was explained to him that the show was entirely for benefit of the recreation center, and that if union musicians had to be employed there might be no profit, he agreed to waive any rights of his musicians to play but decided that neither should the Sequoia groups. Director Max L. Gelber said he believed it unwise to defy the union's edict.

If the plot itself of the Holm-Abbott drama weren't funny enough, the characterization of it will be.

Not that it will be perfect, as it was in the film where Frank McHugh, Joan Blondell, Carol Hughes and a few others gave their interpretation of the famous race track play.

But the imperfections which may show up as the amateur cast presents the comedy are expected to make the show just that much funnier.

the cast, however. The "three men" — Jack O'Keeffe, Milton (See COMEDY PLAY, Page 4)

MENLO PARK NEWS NOTES

MURTHA RITES HELD

MENLO PARK, Nov. 16. — Howard Murtha, son of the late Luke and Elizabeth Murtha, was buried Wednesday, following services at the Church of Nativity. Interment was in Holy Cross Cemetery.

The deceased was a native of Mayfield, born 52 years ago, but had spent the greater part of his life in San Francisco. His father, Luke Murtha, was a skilled horseshoer. During the heyday of the Stanford stock farm, Murtha shod many of the famous trotters that brought glory to the turf and fame to the stock farm.

Mother of the deceased was a daughter of Dennis Martin, noted pioneer. In 1846, Martin joined the Murphy party — at Missouri — for a long trek to California. On arriving, the Murphys acquired large land interests in Southern Santa Clara County while Martin secured a big domain in Portola Valley. Martin established the first saw mill in the county and erected the first Catholic Church, known as St. Dennis. It was wrecked many years ago and the candlesticks and sacred articles, purchased in Rome, were transferred to the Church of the Nativity.

The remains of Martin rest in St. Dennis' Cemetery, on a hillside near where the edifice stood. The lonely grave is unmarked, the elements having destroyed the headstone years ago. The burial place of the noted pioneer may be forgotten, but the memory of Dennis Martin will linger on.

John F. Stahl, retired as a San Francisco postman and for several years a clerk in the Menlo Park Post Office, is now in the Panama Canal Zone. He is planning a 3200-mile trek, partly through wild jungles to Austin, Te., part of a postman's holiday. This announcement is surprising to his friends here. During his residence in Menlo Park he was delicate and in poor health, and apparently in no condition to make such a hazardous trip.

The marriage of a beautiful Menlo Park belle and a Los Angeles attorney will soon be announced. After the marriage the young couple will live in the south.

The big celebration last Saturday was a success in every way. Over 3000 persons witnessed the colorful parade and listened to the eloquent address of Ex-Sen. Samuel Shortridge.

The Safeway Store property on Santa Cruz Ave., near Doyle St., has been sold by the owner, the College of Electronic Medicine of San Francisco, to a local capitalist. The price was $26,000. This is the largest figure ever paid for Menlo Park property. Other large deals are pending and may be reported shortly.

Miss Elizabeth Bowles, the pretty and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bowles, will be married in the Episcopal Church here to William Herren, a San Francisco businessman, Sunday afternoon. Miss Bowles is a graduate of St. Joseph's Parochial School, Sequoia High School and Lux's School. She has a wide circle of friends on the Peninsula. Herren is well-known in San Francisco business circles. After a brief honeymoon the young couple will live in San Francisco.

The old bank building on the corner of the highway and Santa Cruz Ave. is being repaired and remodeled for the city council for a headquarters for the transaction of business. There will be offices for the clerk, police, and a meeting place for the council.

The mezzanine floor will be used for the county library. An up-to-date building, it will be ready for occupancy in two weeks.

Mayor James E. Cooper departed this week for Nebraska to visit his aged mother and other relatives. It has been some years since the mayor visited the home of his boyhood. He will be absent about a month.

The pheasant season opened this week for a brief period. Only two birds a day are allowed to be taken. Edward O'Keefe left yesterday for the Willow Creek Gun Club reserves where pheasants are quite plentiful in the lands there, and where there are large fields of rice.

One hundred seventy-five members of the American Legion auxiliary attended the school of instruction at the U. S. Veterans' Facility in North Palo Alto last Tuesday. The school was planned by Mrs. Lillian Brannan, department rehabilitation chairman. Presidents and interested hospital workers from auxiliary units in San Francisco, Oakland, Berkeley, Alameda, Hayward, San Leandro, Modesto, Tracy, Turlock, San Mateo, Burlingame, Daly City, San Bruno, Millbrae, Redwood City, Menlo Park, South San Francisco, Palo Alto, Mountain View, Sunnyvale, Santa Clara, Santa Cruz and Watsonville attended.

After a thorough tour of inspection with an explanatory talk by Dr. Chester L. Carlisle, clinical director, the ladies were addressed by Dr. P. G. Lasche, manager of the facility.

Following luncheon, which was served in the nurses' dining room, Dr. Carlisle gave a lecture, using charts to explain his talk further.

Ladies of Trinity Guild are holding their annual rummage sale in the old Safeway store on El Camino Real, Friday, from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m.

Menlo Parlor, NDGW, postponed their whist party until sometime in December.

Isabelle Weeden Lindquist will be a guest of the Relief Corps Federation in Redwood City Thursday. She will sing a group of solos. "God Bless America" will be one of her numbers.

Cracker Firm Sets Campaign

W. B. (TOM) LAW

"We pay tribute to the grocers and housewives of Redwood City and the San Francisco Peninsula for their loyalty and faithfulness to Snow Flake crackers," said W. B. (Tom) Law, Peninsula representative for the National Biscuit Co., this week in discussing the current newspaper campaign for Snow Flake crackers.

Since their introduction to Western housewives 20 years ago, Snow Flakes have become the fastest-selling cracker in the West, Law added. Outlining the campaign, Law announced grocers are making mass displays of Snow Flakes. Attractive display cards, printed in color, adorn grocery displays in Peninsula stores, he said.

In this city, Law emphasized the importance of the Redwood City Tribune in carrying the advertisements to its vast audience of local readers each week. And throughout the entire Pacific Region local newspapers are again the exclusive medium for telling the Snow Flake message to housewives who make up their daily shopping lists.

Discussing the present campaign, the NBC representative pointed out that human characters, typical of the average home-loving family, add special interest to the new series. Carefully selected types from a great list of enthusiastic users of Snow Flakes show mothers, fathers and children enjoying the many tasty combinations of Snow Flakes with soups, salads, appetizers, cheese, snacks and spreads.

"Each headline," Law said, "suggests a situation that arises constantly in the meal-planning activities of a busy home maker. In every message one paragraph is devoted to a timely 'Suggestion of the Week.' This is a helpful feature, particularly now when Fall appetites are keen and holiday festivities are being planned."

Law has served with the National Biscuit Co. since 1923, and has been in the Peninsula territory for the past five years. He maintains his residence in Millbrae with his wife and two daughters, one of whom attends Burlingame High School and the other the grade schools of Millbrae. He is a member of the American Legion, having served during the war in the Marine Corps, and holds membership in other civic organizations in this area.

SEQUOIA WATERDOGS LACE SAN JOSE 10-4 TO FINISH SECOND IN P. A. L.

Sequoia High's varsity water polo team wound up in second place in the Peninsula Athletic League for the second year in a row Tuesday by defeating San Jose High 10-4 in the Sequoia pool.

The Cherokees were second to Palo Alto again this year, after having won the championship for seven straight years through 1937 from the start of the league in 1931. The Vikings defeated Sequoia twice this season to cinch their second championship, but almost blew their chances in losing to the same San Jose team that Sequoia trounced yesterday.

65 New Residences Begun in Rural Area

Building operations in rural San Mateo County continued at boom levels in the month of October, the monthly report of Building Inspector William Watson Jr. disclosed here. In the month the inspector issued permits for 65 new residences valued at $241,950. 11 new non-residential structures valued at $15,750.

Plumbing Ordinance Meeting Is Arranged

County Building Inspector William Watson Jr. announced today he had called a meeting for Friday night at the San Mateo

The month's total, $272,750, brought the business for the year's 10 months to $2,378,637.

city hall for discussion of the proposed uniform plumbing ordinance for the county. He has invited representatives of the general contractor's association, Peninsula Master Plumbers, independent master plumbers and Peninsula building inspectors.

The proposed gas appliance ordinance, also being studied by a committee under Watson, will be discussed at a later date with representatives of the gas appliance industry, he said.

Here's Another One For the Record Book

Since the Tribune reported in mid-October that a cherry tree in Redwood City had gone weather crazy and had bloomed in the Fall, dozens of similar reports have come from various parts of the city, county, and state. Saturday Associated Press reported from Yuba City that apple trees have started blooming there.

Just one more freak blooming story to end all freak blooming stories: T. W. Mac Adam, landscape architect living at 115 Dale Ave., San Carlos, has a rhododendron and two Azaleas in full bloom. One is a deciduous white Azalea which should be shedding its leaves instead of showing blossoms.

35th Anniversary
Feted by R. C. Firm

The 35th anniversary of the founding of Hull Bros. Inc., Redwood City hardware firm, will be celebrated by that store in a sale tomorrow. Manager Jack Biane announced today.

The business, located at 805 Main St., was founded in 1904 by Asa E. Hull, now president of the firm and mayor of San Carlos, and his brother, Guy P. Hull, who died in 1923, the same year that the company moved into its present building. Originally it had been located on Main St. where Broadway is now cut through.

Besides Hull and Biane, officials of the firm include Mrs. Jessie E. Choate, secretary. She is the wife of the late Clarence E. Choate, former manager of the store.

In "Marx Bros. at the Circus" Groucho, Chico and Harpo become involved with a lady who walks upside down, among a few other incredible phenomena, and the laughs roll long and loud from the first reel to the final fadeout. The picture opens Sunday at the Fox Sequoia Theater.

Ham-Eggs Defeat Cause of Suicide

DAILY CITY, Nov. 13.—Because the 30-Thursday pension plan failed to pass at the special election, Henry Brutt, 74, of Daly City, is dead today.

His body was found in his carbon monoxide-filled automobile in the garage at his home yesterday by his son-in-law, Frank Kenney, also of Daly City. A piece of rubber hose was found connected to the exhaust and running through a window of the car.

Day before the Nov. 7 vote, Mr. Brutt had told Kenney that if the pension scheme didn't pass he would commit suicide.

Mr. Brutt had been a Daly City resident for two years. His son-in-law said he had been despondent because of his inability to find work. He is survived by three daughters.

The body was taken to the W. C. Lasswell Co. Funeral Home.

Among the first local hunters to return with booty here, the opening of the pheasant-hunting season, were Ole and Bob Oleson of Summit Dr., Emerald Lake. Father and son brought home a pair of choice birds from an early-morning hunt in near-by territory and said they saw signs of many birds. They were gone only an hour and a half, they said.
